Dear Mr. Avram

Steinbeis Center EAST-WEST Joint Ventures thanks for being invited to become Knowledge Partner in TV project to animate an inter-active knowledge-sharing platform. We herby confirm our interest and readiness to participate in this project.

After its start in Romania this project can be model for other countries. Geographic priorities can be put on Serbia, Bulgaria, Moldova und Ukraine where strong need in innovative solutions for social and economic development exist. Steinbeis Center is active in every countries within Danube Region. Therefore we will contribute with suitable contacts and knowledge of economic and social development in the regions. Main subjects of our work are innovation, technology transfer and qualification. As we are part of extensive network of Steinbeis we have access to competence of more than 800 Centres that can be involved.

We also point out that Steinbeis Danube Centre is available as key partner. This non-profit Centre is established to develop partnerships and projects in frame of European Danube Strategy (www.danube-center.com).

Best regards

Jürgen Raizner
